Sue graduated in 1995 from Middlesex University and relocated to the Isle of Wight in 2000 for a three year residency. She has since established an accomplished practice that combines the production of tableware, one-off pieces and installation work.

Sue's clientele include Kevin Costner, Calvin Klein and Tom Kerridge and her work is held in both private and public collections. In addition to her established UK stockists, Sue's work is sold internationally and is currently available in the US, Canada, Denmark and Belgium. Sue is represented by Contemporary Applied Arts, London.
